

ALICE IN WONDERLAND 2018

- Some directors require your audition monologue to be memorized. At WRT, we DO NOT require memorization before an audition, but we would prefer that you are at least comfortable reading your monologue. Memorization is impressive, if possible, but not necessary.
- Choose wisely! Select ONE monologue that will show off your comedic side.
- Select from Guy, Gal, or Either gender from the list below.
- Practice before auditions and focus on:

Expression - use vocal variety, facial expression, & gestures to tell the story

Volume - be sure you speak loud enough to be heard & enunciate your words

Energy & Emotion - be sure capture the character's most dramatic moments

- DO NOT STRESS ! Stand tall & remember to breathe. If you make a mistake, keep going & remember we are all to support & encourage you to try your best.
- LAST, you will learn 16 bars from a song from Alice In Wonderland to show off your singing ability & you will learn a jazz dance routine . Dress comfortably !

A FORMAL PRINCE COMPLAINT - Comedic Monologue

Aren't there any normal princesses out there?? I'd like to meet a princess who actually likes me- for me- not just because i came valiantly to her rescue. A princess who reads by the hour because she likes books! Not because she's been locked in a tower for years. That would be refreshing! A princess who hide her beautiful face in ashes and pretend to be a maid until i throw a ball, and then suddenly there she appears- only to disappear again. I mean some guys think that's interesting- but I'd like to actually finish our dance and say good night? And then really! You think the best way to meet me is to eat a poison apple and get your seven best friends put you in a glass coffin! A simple, "Hi, my name is Snow White." Would work just fine for me! Really! (Prince hears something) Oh no! Gotta run. Another princess in trouble!

"GOOD DEEDS & SUCH – Comedic Monologue

All right, you witches. We've got ourselves a PR problem here. Witches have got a seriously bad reputation here in Fairy Tale Land and it's only getting worse since the Hansel and Gretel incident. I mean, come on people. Eating children. That's just low. The fairies are thinking of getting rid of all magic. They can and they will unless we turn things around and prove we can handle having it. They gave it to Fairy Tale Land in the first place. And now they want it all back because they think we can't handle it. We have a crisis here. I mean, what's a witch without her magic? We're nothing, I tell you. Nothing! We'll be just a bunch of creepy old hags with bad hair and skin. We have to do a major PR thing. Good deeds and stuff. No? Then say "poof" to your magic and learn to use chopsticks because that's all our wands will be good for. We need to do a good deed. Not just any good deed, but a whopper of a good one. We're going to save the Prince... Aka Sleeping Handsome. But think of the PR. Witches saving the Prince who has been put under a sleeping spell. And we must do it before some bubble headed princess manages to beat us to it.

An Elf's Complaint - Comedic Monologue

I am an elf and I need to file a complaint! If you if you think that Santa is a nice, jolly, old fella, then you are WRONG!!!! I work twenty hours a day, seven days a week. Yes, Santa gives us a nice home, but it's in the North Pole and we have to share it with three other elf families. He does feed us well, but he makes us do all the cooking. He makes all the elves work ALL THE TIME. Of course we get holidays off...NOT!!! The only day off we get is on Christmas Eve, after we've loaded up his sleigh. When I am not making toys, I am either at the mall with Santa, or I am taking care of his reindeer. The biggest concern I have is for my children. They've never been to school! Santa really needs to offer some sort education for these kids! The only thing they know how to do is to make a bouncy ball! Seriously? Santa has not been good to us elves. HE should be put on the naughty list, for a change! Oh, did I forget to mention it? WE DIG THE COAL, too!!! It is a very dirty job. Don't get me wrong. I love seeing all the children's faces when they open all the presents we've made for them on Christmas day, BUT THAT IS ONCE A YEAR!!!! Well, I've said everything I came to say. I've got to get back to work. AS ALWAYS! An elf's work is never done.

"Tooth Fairy Sanitizer" – Comedic Monologue

I lost a tooth the other day, and my mom told me to put it under my pillow and that in the middle of the night the Tooth Fairy would come in and take my tooth and replace it with some cash. OK... so I have some questions and concerns here. Number one: What does this little tooth freak do with all of these teeth? By my calculations, somewhere in the world a child loses a tooth every .08 seconds... BUT they are not all in the same part of the world... which brings me to ... Number two: How does this little tooth-collecting creep get from place to place? I mean I get how Santa gets around, but at least he has a route... Number three: If this Fairy is touching other people's teeth each night... what about the germs? I mean obviously some of these kids are losing their teeth because they don't take care of them... so ...ewwwwww... gross.... This fairy is touching a bunch of nasty teeth and then touching my pillow?? From now on when I lose a tooth...I am leaving some anti-bacterial hand sanitizer under my pillow!
